Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

April 2, 2002      LB 1089

AM3447.

SENATOR CUDABACK:      Senator Cunningham, to open on AM3447 to LB 1089.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Thank you, Senator Cudaback and members of the body. I'm going to talk just briefly on this amendment and we're...then I'm going to pull it and we have another amendment to substitute. We're in the middle of a little bit of conversation so can I have just a minute here? As soon as this amendment comes up, I'd like to pull my amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Are you...are you...

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: It will be just...I'm going to...we're going to bring another amendment. We can't substitute because it has another name on it. Now you have the other amendment?

ASSISTANT CLERK: Senator, I have AM3331.

SENATOR CUNNINGHAM: Okay, then I would like to withdraw this amendment, my amendment, AM3447.

SENATOR CUDABACK: So ordered with no objection.

ASSISTANT CLERK: In that case, Mr. President, I have before me AM3331 offered by Senators Bromm, Cunningham, and Kristensen. (Legislative Journal pages 1295-1297.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Bromm.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. Since this bill sprung through on General File there's been a lot of discussion about the policies contained in LB 1089. It got the attention of a lot of people and I know a lot of the senators here have been hearing much from their hometown bankers about the bill and trying to figure out what the correct policy was, and I'm no different than that. I've also been trying to understand what we were doing on General File a little better and try to figure out if this is a good policy or not. I guess I came to the conclusion to a couple of things and, in recent discussions with
